Copy - Option 1:

Have your say. Workers' Voice researchers are looking for workers with experience in the workers' compensation system to take part in a short survey. You'll be asked to rate solutions suggested by other injured workers based on what matters most to you. Your input will help understand what really works and what doesn't. Take the survey here: <http://bit.ly/46ARheQ>

Copy - Option 2:

You are a worker and got experience with the compensation system? Take this quick survey to find out which ideas for improving the system actually hit the mark. You'll be shown a few solutions suggested by other workers and asked to rate them based on your own experience. Share your thoughts here: <http://bit.ly/46ARheQ>

Copy - Option 3:

You have submitted a workers' compensation claim and think the system could have better solutions? You're not alone — and now's your chance to help change it. Workers' Voice researchers are running a short survey where you'll see solutions from other injured workers and select the ones that make the most sense to you. It only takes 10 minutes, and your input really matters. Take the survey here: <http://bit.ly/46ARheQ>
